17th International Symposium
on IgA Nephropathy

TOKYO 2023

IgANN

PARTNERSHIP PROSPECTUS

GREETINGS FROM CONGRESS CHAIR

It is our great honor to invite you to join us for the 17th International Symposium on IgA Nephropathy (IIGANN 2023) to be held from September 28 to 30, 2023 in Tokyo, Japan. We would also organize pre-conference to be held from September 25 to 27, 2023 and would plan various programs related the IgA nephropathy during these events as IgA Nephropathy Week.

IgA nephropathy is the most common form of glomerulonephritis in the world, especially in East Asia, including Japan. It has been still the leading cause of end-stage renal failure (ESKD) in many countries around the world. However, the pathogenesis of ESKD has not been fully elucidated, and many researchers around the world are continuing their studies. On the other hand, many promising therapeutic agents have been developed in recent years, and some international clinical studies are currently underway.

The International IgAN Symposium is held every two to three years, and this will be the 17th time symposium and it has been 17 years since last held in Japan. With new corona virus, COVID19, infections showing signs of slowing down worldwide, we plan to hold the symposium in a hybrid format, between a local venue for the first time in five years and an online venue. The symposium is planned to invite not only physicians and basic/clinical researchers, but also various stakeholders including patients and young people who will lead the next generation.

This symposium is the most important meeting to present the latest findings on the pathogenesis and treatment of IgAN and to exchange opinions. A pre-conference meeting is also planned to provide a forum for the exchange of information between the many key players involved in the disease and those involved in the on-going international clinical trials in order to bring an effective treatment to patients as soon as possible.

We look forward to your cooperation and participation in IIGANN 2023.

Sincerely,

Autumn, 2022

Yusuke Suzuki
